The Gin List

Tarquin's – Cornwall, England

Lively with juniper, cardamom and orange blossom. Incredibly fresh, with reserved pine notes. Crisp and dry, with a tasty spice that lingers on the palate.

Tarquin's The Sea Dog – Cornwall, England

Tarquin's The Seadog is bottled at 57% volume. The strength at which gunpowder would still ignite if it was accidentally soaked in gin during battle. The strength historically drunk by the Royal Navy.

Gin Mare – Vilanova, Spain

Herbal nose with berry fruits. Hints of soapiness and perfume. Very herbal and aromatic palate. Perfume like delivery, coriander and tart juniper with spiced citrus zest on the finish.

Williams Chase Elegant – Herefordshire, England

Crisp apples up front, slowly becoming juicier, with orange peels chiming in from the side. Dryer near the end with classic herbaceousness.

The Botanist – Islay, Scotland

Islay isn't just about the whisky anymore. Cool at first. It quickly mellows out, warmth growing with citrus keeping it fresh throughout.

Martin Millers Westbourne Strength – West Midlands, England

Sweet liquorice builds to a mildly spicy but not at all edgy mid-palate prickled with citrus. Pleasingly bold on the juniper, but so smooth is this that you hardly notice.

Caspyn Cornish Dry Gin

A small batch production gin with a great oily mouth feel opening up to floral led flavours (hibiscus flowers, green tea, bergamot). It has with a lengthy citrus and some say sherbet finish.

Caspyn Cornish Mid-Summer Gin

Caspyn dry gin infused with cucumber & other local summer flora resulting in a punchy and refreshing gin. The cucumber lends the gin a green tinge and aromas of freshly sliced cucumber followed by a strong cumber taste with a good citrus finish. A great local alternative to Hendricks.

Tanqueray No. 10 – Fife, Scotland

Waxy juniper plays nicely against the citrus-led flavour profile. Perfectly balanced white pepper spice, floral camomile and a deep earthy tone that hits all the right spots.

Plymouth – Plymouth, England

Great depth of flavour, fresh juniper, lemony bite with deeper earthy notes. It has a slight sweetness with impressive concentration and complexity. No single botanical dominates the overall flavour.

Citadelle – Cognac, France

Complex interplay of the floral and spicy makes for multi-layered gin experience without being mugged by Juniper. The savoury is immediately followed on by a show from the star anise but it plays nicely with the citrus and violets. The savoury and woody components then start to take hold leaving a lingering but complex dryness with a aromatic ending and a delightful tingling at midpoint of tongue and lips.

Caorunn Small Batch – Speyside, Scotland

A small batch Scottish gin from the Balmenach distillery in Speyside, Caorunn (pronounced ka-roon), made with a combination of traditional and handpicked botanicals including rowan berry, heather, coul blush apple and dandelion.

Tanqueray Rangpur – Fife, Scotland

This gin is flavoured with Rangpur limes, also known as a mandarin orange. These highly acidic fruits, actually orange in colour, impart a fresh, zesty zing to this refreshing gin.

Sipsmiths – London, England

Gentle mouthfeel, with initial dry juniper by growing sweetness, showing lemon tart & orange marmalade, garnished by a wave of fresh lemon zest, followed by bolder juniper & light dryness, before all the flavours harmonise into one integrated taste.

Portobello Road No. 171 – London, England

Well-integrated spice, with a healthy dose of juniper. Soft Lemon grass flavours with a hint of red berries

Hendricks – Girvan, Scotland

Slightly sweet with a burst of juniper and citrus, set against fresh green flavours. Cumin, cracked black pepper and salty liquorice notes help give a long, lingering finish.

No. 209 - San Francisco, USA

Very aromatic blend of (mostly) citrus, spice, and a lovely grainy/bran taste and mouth feel. Mild tingling on the lips and tongue from all the spices. Juniper some gins rely on. Smooth, citrusy, with the lemon and bergamot providing lighter notes and with the juniper being a bit more restrained.

No. 3 – London, England

Juniper to the fore, supported by floral notes and spicy, warm cardamom. Plenty of citrus ‘zing’ complemented by the gingery spiciness of coriander.

Whitley Neill – Birmingham, England

Smooth gin with a middling juniper hit. There is initial warmth of spiciness that is swiftly followed by a very complex citrus and floral avalanche. Once all this subsides, one is left with a slightly spicy, earthy taste that lingers pleasantly.

Greenalls Bloom – Cheshire, England

Sweet, delicate and floral, with a citrus finish. Honeysuckle provides natural sweetness and warms up the Chamomile, while the Pomelo offers a soft sun-drenched citrus note to perfectly balance the gin, rounding out Bloom.

Beefeater 24 – London, England

Soft slightly sweet palate, piny juniper leads with grapefruit, tea, liquorice and violet. Sweetened lemon zest and white pepper on the finish.

Aviation – Portland, USA

Spicy and oily in feel, floral notes and the strongest juniper flavour you’ll ever experience.

Deaths Door – Wisconsin, USA

Lovely, bright and distinctive, To be specific the wild juniper is very aromatic and somewhat citrusy, the coriander gives a very spicy dryness and the fennel provides a lot of slightly oily body and a lot of spice aroma.

Glorious – New York, USA

Earthy juniper with tangy grapefruit, hints of ginger and fresh herbs, a very complex gin.

Fifty Pounds – London, England

Juniper, orange and lemon citrus led palate with fresh eucalyptus, sage spice and liquorice.

Hoxton – Dijon, France

Tropical fruit notes, with coconut very prominent on the nose. There's a heavy citric element. The coconut dominates on the palate, but well balanced by the citric sweetness from the grapefruit, finished nicely by a small dash of juniper.

Six O'Clock – Bristol, England

The traditional characters are there but some fresh citrus and lovely notes of elderflower. Amazingly powerful in the mouth with great depth of flavour. Super and full floral backing. Fresh yet soothing. Full flavoured but beautifully balanced. Long and full flavoured finish where the floral notes are strongly evident.

Haymans Old Tom – London, England

Fresh citrus lemon on the nose with a delicate mix of juniper flowing through. A clean flavour on the palate, with a slight tang on entry, however it smoothes itself out into a slight dryness.

Monkey 47 – Oberjoch, Germany

Woody, vegetable smells under pin fresh grassy citrus notes and botanical sweetness, almost like pine forest after the rain on the nose. Predictably complex on the palate, robust and powerful gin with plenty of spice, fruit and herb flavours. Well structured, very subtle fresh citrus segues into pine and wood notes for a drying finish.

Curio, Rock Samphire - Cornwall, England

Hand foraged on the cliff tops around Mullion, the rock samphire is blended with fragrant botanicals and distilled in small batches, for exceptional quality and a delicately smooth gin. We recommend it neat with just ice and a garnish.

Pinkster- Warrington, England

Whilst juniper is the essential and dominant botanical of the five, the raspberries ensure a smooth finish. The fruitiness on the nose is balanced with scents of juniper coming through and the raspberry is gently prevalent on the palate resulting in a smooth and slightly spicy finish.

The Wrecking Coast, Clotted Cream Gin – Cornwall, England

Smooth on the palette and velvety rich in the mouth, our handcrafted, small-batch clotted cream gin delivers a distinctly Cornish flavour.

Trevethan – Cornwall, England

Each batch is hand distilled at Trevethan's craft facility in Cornwall. The small quantities that produced help to create the unique flavour and give every batch its own signature character. Complex, with subtle hints of citrus and floral notes, it's made using botanicals sourced from Cornish hedgerows for a true taste of Cornwall.

Staffords – Cornwall, England

Made by infusing Aval Dor Cornish Potato Vodka with a selection of Botanicals from the very hedgerows of the fields where the potatoes are grown and further afield. Combining Cornish lemon balm, rosemary and bay leaves along with the more traditional gin flavourings produces a unique and grown up tasting Gin that makes the most of it's potato vodka base.

Jinzu – Fife, Scotland

Jinzu Gin brings English and Japanese traditions together to create an exciting, intriguing spirit. It's made with a blend of English gin (featuring juniper, coriander, angelica, yuzu and Japanese cherry blossom as botanicals) and sake, which brings a luxurious, creamy mouth feel and a subtle, compelling sweetness to its flavour profile.

Williams Extra Dry – Herefordshire, England

Infuse juniper buds and berries to ensure that we distil the driest gin possible, followed by wild botanicals including; cinnamon, nutmeg, ginger, almond, coriander, cardamom, cloves, liquorice and lemon to ensure a distinct and robust flavour.

The King of SOHO – Londons West End

The gin has a clean and gentle nose which belies its strength that opens up to reveal classic juniper and pine notes with a refreshing zest of citrus oil. The tangy grapefruit reluctantly gives way to soft warming spice.

Langleys – West Midlands, England

A big, robust gin yet, with a smooth and lingering finish, complete the complex experience one gets from Langley's No.8. The initial big flavours of Juniper and Coriander are followed by a sweet and zesty zing of citrus with a finish that delivers a creamy mouth-fill and drying length.

Chilgrove – Sussex, England

Nestled at the foot of the South Downs, surrounded by woodland and steeped in thousands of years of history and tradition lies the sleepy Sussex hamlet of Chilgrove. This beautiful corner of rural England is home to Chilgrove Dry Gin, an astonishing spirit as elegant as it is gloriously English.
